"Synopsis Image matters, so do looks and the art of looking good. In society we respond to first impressions. Although beauty is more than skin deep we seek out people of beauty and those with style appeal. This is a style guide for hair and make up professionals who want to develop their skills as advisers, designers and artists. It also explores how to develop a client's style potential and looks. It explains how to assess the client, her needs and then contribute to composing and creating looks that are aesthetically suitable and technically sound. Recognising the importance of creating quality images for PR, editorial or advertising purposes, Ian Mistlin explains how to develop photographic imagery and concludes with a gallery of images and insights from contributing artists. Æber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende IAN MISTLIN draws on a wealth of expertise and a unique blend of expertise as a former stylist and manager with Vidal Sassoon; as a session hair and make-up artist and as an image consultant. He is the author of How to Win Clients and Interpret Their Needs. He now divides his time as a management and learning consultant, offering bespoke consultancy services, training and development."
